English Language and Phonics News:

🌸 Welcome back after the Lunar New Year Holiday! 🌸

As we start the 2nd Semester it is time to reflect on what the children have accomplished so far and then look forward to seeing how much more they can achieve during the remainder of the school year. You'll be amazed at their progress over the next few months 😊.

PN classes have been finding out about all the different types and species of animals and learning about their habitats through lots of stories, songs and role-play activities. They have been investigating the inhabitants of farms, zoos and jungles as well as pet animals at home.

N classes are now very confident in their letter and sound recognition and pronunciation. They are about to start learning another very important principle in their early literacy journey - pencil control and letter formation. Keep up the fine motor skills in preparation!

LK classes continue to strengthen their writing skills and, in addition, are now starting to put the letters and sounds they have learnt together in sequence to spell out phonetically regular words. Completing such tasks will enable them to further comprehend the written form of the English language.

UK classes have concluded learning all of the various long vowel spelling patterns and are now able to choose the correct spelling of words containing the long vowels when writing and spelling. They've also had a brief introduction to the grammatical concept of 'Homophones' where two words sound the same but they mean different things and can be spelt differently too! E.g. see/sea and week/weak.
